PRIVACY

This Privacy Policy sets out how St Bernadette’s manages personal information provided to or collected by it.

St Bernadette’s is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. In relation to health records, St Bernadette’s is also bound by the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.).

St Bernadette’s may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to St Bernadette’s operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information does St Bernadette’s collect and how does St Bernadette’s collect it?

The type of information St Bernadette’s collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including health and other sensitive information, about:

- students and parents and/or guardians (‘parents’) before, during and after the course of a student's enrolment at St Bernadette’s;
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors; and
- other people who come into contact with St Bernadette’s.

Personal Information you provide:
St Bernadette’s will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than parents and students provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people:
In some circumstances St Bernadette’s may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Exception in relation to employee records:
Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to St Bernadette’s treatment of an employee record unless required by law or organisational policy where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between St Bernadette’s and employee. St Bernadette’s handles staff health records in accordance with the Health Privacy Principles in the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.)

Anonymity:
St Bernadette’s needs to collect identifiable information to facilitate the delivery of educational and support services, the job application process and fulfil other obligations and processes. However, some activities and interactions with St Bernadette’s may be done anonymously where practicable, which may include making an inquiry, complaint or providing feedback.

How will St Bernadette’s use the personal information you provide?
St Bernadette’s will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents:
In relation to personal information of students and Parents, St Bernadette’s primary purpose of collection is to enable St Bernadette’s to provide educational and support services for the student.
St Bernadette’s – The Basin

This includes satisfying the needs of Parents, the needs of the student and the needs of St Bernadette’s throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at St Bernadette’s.

The purposes for which St Bernadette’s uses personal information of students and parents include:

- to keep parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration of St Bernadette’s;
- looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for St Bernadette’s; and
- to satisfy St Bernadette's legal obligations and allow St Bernadette’s to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where St Bernadette's requests personal information about a student or Parent, if the information requested is not provided, St Bernadette’s may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

Job applicants and contractors:
In relation to personal information of job applicants and contractors, St Bernadette’s primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, or contractor, as the case may be. The purposes for which St Bernadette’s uses personal information of job applicants and contractors include:

- administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- for insurance purposes;
- seeking donations and marketing for St Bernadette’s; and
- satisfying St Bernadette's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers:
St Bernadette’s also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist St Bernadette’s in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as [alumni associations], to enable St Bernadette’s and the volunteers to work together.

Marketing and fundraising:
St Bernadette’s treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of St Bernadette’s as an important part of ensuring that St Bernadette’s continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by St Bernadette’s may be disclosed to organisations that assist in St Bernadette’s fundraising, for example, St Bernadette's' Parents and Friends’ Association or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations.

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

Who might St Bernadette’s disclose personal information to and store your information with?
St Bernadette’s may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual to:

- School service providers, including the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria, (CECV), Catholic Education Offices specialist visiting teachers, counsellors and sports coaches, and other dioceses;
• third party service providers that provide educational support services to schools and school systems such as the Integrated Catholic Online Network system (ICON);
• another school to facilitate the transfer of a student;
• government departments;
• medical practitioners;
• recipients of St Bernadette’s publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
• student's parents or guardians;
• anyone you authorise St Bernadette’s to disclose information to; and
• anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law.

Sending and storing information overseas:
St Bernadette’s may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, St Bernadette’s will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:
• obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
• otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

St Bernadette’s may also store personal information in the 'cloud' which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.

The countries or regions that St Bernadette’s discloses personal and sensitive information to may include but not limited to the European Union, the United States of America and Singapore.

Where personal and sensitive information is retained by the CECV by a cloud service provider to facilitate HR and staff administrative support, this information will be stored on servers located within Australia. This includes the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) system.

How does St Bernadette’s treat sensitive information?
In referring to 'sensitive information', St Bernadette’s means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and security of personal information
St Bernadette’s staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

St Bernadette’s has in place steps to protect the personal information St Bernadette’s holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Access and correction of personal information
Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act and the Health Records Act, an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information and health records respectively which St Bernadette’s holds about them and to advise St Bernadette’s of any perceived inaccuracy. Individuals will generally be able to access and update their personal information.
There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or update any personal information St Bernadette’s holds about you or your child, please contact the School Principal or School Administrator by telephone or in writing. St Bernadette’s may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. St Bernadette’s may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, St Bernadette’s will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of students

St Bernadette’s respects every parent’s right to make decisions concerning their child’s education. Generally, St Bernadette’s will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student’s parents. St Bernadette’s will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and notice to parents will act as notice given to the student.

Parents may seek access to personal information held by St Bernadette’s about them or their child by contacting the School Principal or School Administrator by telephone or in writing. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of St Bernadette’s duty of care to the student.

St Bernadette’s may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by St Bernadette’s about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student’s personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and complaints

If you would like further information about the way St Bernadette’s manages the personal information it holds, or wish to complain that you believe that St Bernadette’s has breached the Australian Privacy Principles please contact the School Principal by writing or telephone at PO Box 106 The Basin, Victoria, 3154, or (03) 9762 5135. St Bernadette’s will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.

CEM 2015